The website now includes forms for new patients to download and complete, as well as an archive for past newsletters. Visitors can sign up on the home page

FREE ALLERGY SAMPLES

RCAM is giving away a FREE ALLERGY SAMPLES to the first 100 patients while supply lasts. These homeopathic tablets are provided from HEEL, inc. Take one tablet sublingual as directed for allergy symptoms. For more complete allergy relief, get the HEEL Allergy Kit also available from RCAM (see enclosed coupon).

FREE ENERGY TEST

The Diabetes Center is offering the public a FREE ENERGY TEST! Here's what you do:

1. Come to RCAM;
2. Request Test;
3. Get Results.

The test takes only 5 minutes. It is called RQ ("Respiratory Quotient") and measures your carbon dioxide level. This, in turn, gives the doctor information about your cellular energy.

INSURANCE

RCAM now accepts some insurance. More insurance will be accepted as RCAM gets approved as a provider. Insurance billing is already available for pain and diabetic patients.

Meet the Medical Director: Dr. Dan

Dr. Daniel Royal was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina while his father was attending medical school and his mother nursing school at Wake Forest University. His father's service in the Air Force moved the family to Texas and then Oregon. Daniel began working in his father's private medical clinic in Eugene, Oregon when he was 14 years old. At that time, he was worked in the lab developing thyroid tests and x-rays.

Following a 2-year church mission to Hamburg, Germany, he moved to Las Vegas, Nevada and worked in the homeopathic pharmacy of the Nevada Clinic. After graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Biology from UNLV, he attended the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific where he obtained his Doctorate of Osteopathic Medicine. Following a residency in Mesa, Arizona, he obtained his licensure in Nevada, apprenticed with his father, a homeopathic physician in Las Vegas, and became Board Certified in Family Practice.

Daniel F. Royal, DO, HMD, JD

In the 1990's, he obtained additional training in medical alternatives in Europe and Canada. He also spent some time practicing in Lancaster County Pennsylvania where he worked in a rural clinic on an Amish farm and served as the physician to many of the Amish and Mennonites. Eventually, he returned to Las Vegas and began his own clinic, The Royal Center of Advanced Medicine.

It was during this time he began attending the part-time program at UNLV's William S. Boyd School of Law. When he graduated, he was one of only two people in the UNLV Law Class of 2002 to have taken and passed the U.S. Patent Bar and be licensed as a patent agent with the U.S. Patent Office. He also passed the Nevada state bar exam and is licensed to practice law.

In 1996, he founded the Royal Center for Advanced Medicine where he is currently practicing medicine and serving as Medical Director. His goal is "to make the Royal Center for Advanced Medicine the most efficient and effective holistic healing center in the world!"

REVITALIZATION SPA NOW AVAILABLE!

A Revitalization Spa is now available at RCAM. This unique spa is unlike any other in that it contains far Infrared sauna therapy, steam sauna therapy, and contrast shower. This combination of therapies provides a gentle form of detoxification whereby toxins can safely be eliminated through the skin. Thus, patients become healthier and stronger in order to better tolerate other forms of therapy that may be prescribed for their medical conditions.

Far Infrared Sauna

The far infrared band is part of the sun's invisible spectrum of light that resonates with the healthy frequencies of our own cells. This band of light has the ability to penetrate our skin and warm our body directly. This, in turn, causes a detoxification response whereby toxins from the cells to be released into the blood stream and eventually, excreted via sweat, feces, and urine. The far infrared heat is completely safe as it produces none of the harmful rays of sunlight, only natural healing heat, and the high levels of external heat characteristic of typical dry saunas are unnecessary here. In fact, this same type of heat is so safe that hospitals use it to keep newborns warm.

Steam Sauna

A generator produces a flow of steam that provides a higher temperature than far infrared sauna. This steam generator utilizes filtered and ion-controlled water sources to maximize benefits. Essential oils can be used to help improve effectiveness, ambiance, and overall experience. Works great for patients with fatigue, pain, poor circulation, stress, and sleep disorders.

Contrast Shower

A contrast shower alternates hot and cold temperatures. At RCAM, this computerized shower uses 14 showerheads arranged towards the patient in 4 directions to control water flow and provide soothing and stimulating temperatures. The fluctuating contrast in temperatures stimulates vitality, promotes detoxification, and treats areas of pain and soreness. It also helps normalize the nervous, circulatory, endocrine, musculoskeletal, and immune systems to help the body better cope with physiological and psychological stress.
